LAW & ORDER POLICY

PUBLIC SAFETY

We should maintain our pride and try to maintain the image that New Zealand is one of the safest countries in the world. Protect and Prosper New Zealand raises important issues that have been ignored by the major parties.

After research, we have developed unique and practical policies which will effectively control crime in New Zealand.

OUR UNIQUE POLICIES ARE TO DEAL WITH

- Ram Raids
- Safety of public places and religious places
- Crime against women and children
- Crime against local citizens
- Domestic/family Violence
- Sexual related Crime

POLICY

1. Increase sentences for criminals who use children to commit crimes.
2. Electronic monitoring of criminals regardless of age.
3. Fast-track youth courts.
4. Adults and older ring leaders are involved to receive a jail term.
5. Review Section #27 of the Sentencing Act 2002 having regard to the victim of the crime. Restore the balance between perpetrator and victim in 'cultural reporting' and the discounting of 10-30% off the sentence. Rather than using the reports to let them off, they should be rehabilitated when locked up.
6. Name restriction to be removed for criminals. Reduce the ease with which name suppression is available.

RAM RAID

ISSUES- Soaring Crime Rates

1. Ram raids and burglaries are ruining our country's image and making Kiwis uncomfortable and unsafe.
2. Businesses are closing because of safety issues while others are planning to move to Australia.
3. Vandalise and attack on public places and religious places.

SOLUTIONS

1. PPNZ believes that through a well-thought-out solution, the offenders can be converted to being responsible adults.
2. A problem is that one political party is soft on crime while the other is hard on crime, both blaming each other. The end result is that little has been achieved over the last twenty years as little has been done to address the core causes of the crimes.
3. Address the 'Ram Raids' and youth crime by introducing tougher sentences, and skill development options, with 'structure', 'discipline', and 'pathways' for the perpetrator's future.
4. 17 year-olds need to be dealt with through the adult courts
5. Penalties should be applied to all of those that visit the crime scene with the perpetrator. Whether or not they are regarded as accessories.
6. Anti-loitering laws need to be introduced in New Zealand, preventing the gathering of groups in public places for no specific reason.
7. 12-16 year olds need to be dealt with in a different way. They should be placed into carefully managed, secured centres with programmes to address their specific needs.
8. After research, we propose practical solutions that work.
9. Despite a young age offenders should be prosecuted, but instead of putting teens in jails at tax-payers expense, we propose that they should be 'rehabilitated' in a secure environment by teaching them other life skills that they would enjoy - like arts, music, entrepreneurial skills, running food carts etc, for their future
10. The fact is that not everyone can stick to a 9am - 5pm job.
11. Most of these children who commit crimes face either poverty, lack of family support, get involved with drugs or other addictions, suffer boredom, and don't fit into 9am-5pm jobs.
12. Tougher laws for repeat offenders and electronic monitoring.
13. Regular payment taken from the offenders benefit to compensate the affected parties' loss.
14. Charge criminal offenders who are caught vandalizing or damaging public places, including religious places.
15. Dairy and small business owners suffer shock because of ram raids. Public place attacks create fear amongst shoppers. For example, repeat attacks on malls will discourage local Kiwis to go there and that will ruin the businesses and the local economy.
16. Eg; the recent looting of a jewellery store in a mall.
17. Greater powers need to be given to the NZ Police to tackle aggravated robberies.
18. However, we need to listen to the views of the local businesses and victims before creating the solutions.

LOCAL RESIDENTS SAFETY AND PUBLIC PLACES

1. Protect local public and their property.
2. Zero tolerance for crime against local law abiding residents.
3. Criminal act on the offender if crime committed at local residents houses.
4. Protect you, Protect your family, Protect your business !
5. Vandalism at public places and religious places.
6. Criminal act on the offender if found guilty for any act of damage, vandalism to public places, places of worship of any faith or religion.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

1. Analyse and identify the causes of domestic violence.
2. Develop practical solutions that have worked in the past, for each of the causes.
3. Make attendance at 'Anger Management Courses' compulsory for all offenders.
4. Increase the penalties for domestic violence.
5. Increase the range and penalties for restraining orders.
6. Create more 'pathways' for people to leave dangerous domestic environments, with support provided.
7. Build more 'Safe Houses' for victims of domestic violence to go to.
8. Provide greater funding for organisations such as 'Women's Refuge' and 'Victim Support'.
9. Establish and organisation to provide a 24 hour phone reporting line service for reporting any sexual harassment or sexual violence, anonymously.

LAW & ORDER POLICY

Updated February 2023

POLICE POWER

1. Independent review of the 'Soft on Crime' criticism of the NZ Police, Minister of Police and the NZ Police Commissioner.
2. Adopt a 'Firm but Fair' policy rather than a 'Soft on Crime' policy.
3. Increase NZ Police powers to act before a crime is committed in some instances.
4. Review the adequacy of the current range of NZ Police weapons that officers are permitted to carry.
5. Greater power to the NZ Police. Train and recruit more police force.

ANALYSE, IDENTIFY AND SOLVE THE SPECIFIC ISSUES

1. Analyse and identify the full range of reasons for the crime and address accordingly.
2. Solutions are not just one but multiple. Eg; physical disciplines (eg; physical army style), Mental Health treatment, Addictions centres treatment, Poverty treatment, Art Therapy treatment.
